

Romano

Como Sofa & Sectional

Como is a modern sofa with clean lines. It sits a little higher at 18" and offers good back support with its fixed back that gives just the right amount of firmness. The custom metal leg is made of heavy gauge blackened natural steel where each piece is unique and hand finished, which elevates this piece and gives it a distinctive industrial look. Also available with a tapered wood leg that evokes a more mid-century inspired style.
